A day down on the farm — in school

Teal Cook bottle-feeds a goat during Little Friends Preschool's farm day Thursday at Homedale Friends Community Church. Preschoolers were treated to a farm day Thursday in the church parking lot off U.S. Highway 95 north of Homedale. Organizer Marcy Hibbs said she was grateful for several volunteers and community members who brought young farm animals for the interactive event. Others also brought farm equipment that the boys and girls were able to sit in and learn about. Submitted photo

Matlock first Homedale athlete drafted into NFL

BSU standout goes to Chargers in sixth round

Scott Matlock made Owyhee County history Saturday.

The Homedale High School graduate became the first county native selected in the NFL Draft.

A defensive lineman from Boise State University, the 6-foot, 4-inch, 300-pound Matlock was chosen in the sixth round by the Los Angeles Chargers.

The 200th pick of a draft staged in Kansas City, Matlock is part of the 14-year streak of Boise State players being selected in the NFL draft.

Matlock spent the second day of the draft on Friday on a Boise-area golf course, according to his high school coach Matt Holtry. Holtry gathered with two assistant coaches who were on staff when Matlock was at HHS — Dan Holtry and Cam Long — and watched the draft at a Nampa restaurant Friday.

Scott Matlock

Matt Holtry handicapped all the defensive tackles that were listed above Matlock in the draft list, trying to determine when his former player would get the call.

The call didn't come until

Rimrock woodshop students ready to show their talents

Community park community service enlivens benches

by Maklay Moore

The Rimrock High School woodshop students will display their work from the 2022-23 season tonight at the annual wood show.

But folks who get sunshine at the Bruneau Community Park already have experienced the students' hard work and dedication.

With generous support from Bruneau Boosters, the students gave the park's benches a new lease on life.

The students spent hours sandblasting the metal frames to remove the old paint and rust. The frames were then covered with a fresh coat of paint, giving them a sleek, black appearance.

Next, the wood was stripped of its old paint and sanded down to its natural state.

The students then applied a dark stain to the wood, bringing out its natural beauty and giving it a rich, elegant look.

The Rimrock woodshop students should be commended for their hard work and dedication to this project. Their efforts have not only helped beautify the park but also provided them with valuable experience and skills that they can use throughout their lives.

So next time you visit Bruneau Community Park, be sure to take a seat on one of the newly restored benches and admire the work of these talented students.

Post 11065 earns District 4 Veterans of Foreign Wars honor

The Veterans of Foreign Wars post that serves Homedale and Marsing — among other communities — has received recognition for its progress.

Samuel C. Phillips III Post 11065 Cmdr. Luke Hayward accepted the most improved award during the District 4 quarterly luncheon and meeting on April 15 in New Plymouth.

The meeting also featured VFW auxiliaries. Hayward and two of his sisters — Auxiliary 11065 members Anne Stephens and Doris Hayward-Roland — also attended the meeting.

District 4 Cmdr. Owen Spurling presented the award.

The Wilder-based Post 11065 and Auxiliary work closely together to support veterans and youth in a service area of Homedale, Marsing, Wilder, Greenleaf and Parma.

With the closure of the George VanDerhoff American Legion Post 32, VFW Post 11065 is the only armed services veterans' organization that directly serves Homedale.

Post 11065 officers include:

HHS track closed for upgrades

The weather is finally cooperating, so Homedale High School's new athletic track will be completed.

The school district closed Deward Bell Stadium on Monday to allow crews to put down the all-weather surface and striping on the track ringing the football field.

The facility is closed until further notice.

Signs will be posted, and the gates will be locked during the closure, which means community members won't be able to use the track for exercise.

BGV district has homes to attract, retain teachers

State trustees extend enrollment as funding formula until end of FY 23

Patrons at Thursday's School Talks heard about strategies the Bruneau-Grand View School District will use to recruit and retain teaching staff.

"Recruiting and retaining teachers and staff is a challenge for rural schools," district superintendent Jeff Blaser wrote in an information kit for The Owyhee Avalanche.

The school district owns six homes and is looking to convert an existing building in Grand View into an apartment "in order to help entice and keep teachers in our district," Blaser said.

The district will open a daycare prior to the next school year for young staff members who need childcare so they can work full time.

"The district is seeking creative ways to entice quality teachers to apply this spring, and stay in the community," Blaser wrote.

With an eye toward the 2023-24 school year, the latest School Talks open forum at Rimrock Jr.-Sr. High School also addressed enrollment projections for the fall.

Blaser explained how the Idaho Legislature's decision to move public schools funding back to Average Daily Attendance from Enrollment would impact districts.

"This decision will be costly for all districts and will cause school districts to work diligently to assure students are in school every day, all day in order to qualify for maximum funding," Blaser wrote.

The enrollment formula was instituted during the COVID-19 pandemic because of how illness made ADA so inconsistent.

"The shift will mean a significant funding difference for all districts," Blaser said. "Enrollment projections will be important to our budgeting process as we look ahead to the upcoming school year in 2023-24."

In a press release last Wednesday announcing an extension of the enrollment rule, the Idaho State Board of Education reported that the change back to ADA is expected to decrease funding statewide by more than $100 million.

The SBOE extended the enrollment rule to calculate funding until the end of Fiscal Year 2023, which is Sept. 30.

Early in the pandemic, the Board used its rule-making authority to use enrollment, rather than ADA as the basis for funding in response to large decreases in daily attendance caused by COVID-19.

Three years later, approximately 80 to 85 percent of enrolled K-12 students are attending school on any given day compared to approximately 95 percent prior to the pandemic.

The state school board will convene a special meeting later in the spring for further discussion on the issue.

The state board also reorganized during last week's meeting.

Dr. Linda Clark was appointed to replace Kurt Liebich as board president. Bill Gilbert replaces Clark as board vice-president.

Idaho Superintendent of Public Instruction Debbie Critchfield will serve as board secretary.

The executive team of Clark, Gilbert and Critchfield will serve the board for one year.

Homedale Chamber plans summer fest fun

Cornhole tourney, car show among June events

The Homedale Chamber of Commerce took a big step toward its summer festival during last week's monthly meeting.

The Homedale Idaho Snake River Festival will take place from 2 p.m., to 5 p.m., on Saturday, June 24 at Riverside Park.

The flier developed for the event advertises local food and craft vendors, free swimming in the municipal pool, live music and a cornhole tournament.

A car show to benefit Silver City Masonic Lodge No. 13 and its youth programs also will be held on the blacktop along the river. Proceeds from donated entry fees for Rods on the River will help the Masons carry out their Bikes for Books program and provide scholarships for high school seniors.

Proceeds from the cornhole tournament will go into the Chamber's storefront beautification fund, which provides matching funds for businesses that want to spruce up curb appeal.

More details about the festival are available through the Chamber presence at www.cityofhomedale.org.

Businesses interested in sponsorship opportunities can also contact the Chamber through the website.

Outside counsel to handle OCSO probe

Kendrick: POST “strongly” recommended ethics training

A law firm hired by Owyhee County’s insurance carrier will carry out a sheriff’s office internal affairs investigation.

Sheriff Larry Kendrick confirmed last week that Boise-based Naylor & Hales will conduct the probe, and he promised full transparency once the issue is resolved.

“I requested outside investigators on an internal affairs investigation being conducted inside our department for shenanigans that took place prior to my appointment,” the sheriff said.

The Board of County Commissioners voted unanimously to have District 3 Commissioner and chair Joe Merrick sign an agreement for legal counsel during the April 24 meeting in Murphy.

“I don’t know how much further I need to go into detail on that,” Dist. 2 Commissioner Kelly Aberasturi said while making the motion.

The investigation is just part of OCSO’s rehabilitation apparently.

On May 16-17, all OCSO employees will attend a meeting with the office’s new brass — Kendrick, Chief Deputy Steve Crawford, and jail commander Sgt. James Vincent.

“Myself and Steve and Jim will discuss expectations for the different units, our vision, and then POST is doing a two-hour class on ethics and professional standards,” the sheriff said.

Idaho Peace Officer Standards and Training officials strongly recommended the class, Kendrick said, adding that the education is “sorely needed.”

New waterways deputy named

County commissioners approved more personnel moves during last week’s meeting in Murphy:

- Jeff Wasson, a patrol sergeant under Perry Grant, was put back on patrol. His hourly wage remains $26.83.
- Connie Peterson was moved from jail sergeant to jail corporal, and her pay remains $24.33 per hour.
- Backcountry deputy Kenny Hoagland was given a pay raise from $26.97 per hour to $33.44 per hour.
- Pat McCormack, a Public Employees Retirement System of Idaho (PERSI) employee, was moved from part-time to full time and put in charge of OCSO’s waterways and off-highway vehicle programs. He’ll continue to earn $24.33 per hour.

McCormack replaces Sgt. Tim Riha, who had resigned a week earlier.

“I’m honored and proud to be back here. I really am,” McCormack said during the meeting. “I appreciate the opportunity to serve the new sheriff.”

McCormack, who has also served as a deputy in the courthouse, read portions of a three-page letter Riha had left for him. In the letter, Riha wished him luck and expressed concern about the future of the programs McCormack would oversee.

“I hate to see the agency slip backwards, but I think you’ve probably bitten off more than you can chew,” McCormack read from Riha’s letter.

“It’s pretty sad that the voters did not get to have their say in this coup. Good luck. And know that I will be watching. I will be vocal about areas where you haven’t met or exceeded the status quo.”

The new waterways supervisor responded: “I’m here today to inform Mr. Riha, the sheriff and commissioners that we’ve already exceeded the status quo. We found one boat that’s not functional, and that gets fixed today (April 24).”

McCormack plans to inventory the equipment on hand to identify outdated items or equipment that need repair.

McCormack also told the BOCC that he has contacted affiliated agencies, such as the Bureau of Land Management and the Idaho Department of Fish and Game.

“I’ve also updated myself on current grants and contracts that need to be reviewed or considered,” he said.

Kindness Campaign returns to Marsing

The final Kindness Campaign community event of the Marsing school year takes place Thursday.

It’s a Cinco de Mayo celebration a day early.

The event will run from 6 p.m., to 7:30 p.m., inside the school district cafeteria on 8th Avenue West.

Volunteers were still being sought to help with the event. Contact Ken Price at kprice@marsingschools.org.

The event begins with dinner, and schools superintendent Norm Stewart will give an introduction, welcome and program highlights.

After ice cream, there will be activity breakouts.

Each student will receive a free book, and other activities are planned:

- Flower making with tissue paper and pipe cleaners
- Pan Dulce walk, which is similar to a cake walk
- Video game stations

Resource tables also will be set up for families to find help for issues.

Sponsors help Trobots in another season of competition

The Homedale High School robotics team tackled another Idaho Regional FIRST Robotics competition thanks to support from local and regional sponsors.

One of the Trobots’ coaches, Abbi Jones, reports that the team competed against 48 teams during the regional contest on March 31 and April 1 at the Ford Idaho Center in Nampa.

Teams came from Canada and China as well as other areas of Idaho and states like California, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, Utah, and Wyoming.

The Homedale team went 5-6 during the regional, which marked the end of the competitive season.

The team includes Carson Bingham, Kaden Ashliman, Corey Romriell, Kaden Tomevi, and Todd Thatcher.

Jones and Mark Thatcher serve as teacher mentors, while parents Brian Ashliman, Quinn Bingham, and DeAnn Thatcher provide support.

“The team wishes to thank their sponsors for all their generous support that makes it possible to field a team,” Jones said.

Sponsors include:

- Tolmie’s Ace Hardware
- Matteson’s Owyhee Motor Sales
- NAPA Owyhee Auto Parts
- Parker Advisors
- Integra Resources DeLamar Mine
- Agri-Lines Irrigation
- Laura Moore Cunningham Foundation
- Bayer Foundation
- FIRST Inspires
- Argosy Foundation
- Micron

“The team also recognizes the amazing support of the Homedale High School and the district technology departments,” Jones said.

Jones said the community will have a chance to show more support in the fall when the program holds a fundraiser.

“Folks can come eat from a baked potato bar, play Nerf Gun games, and see our robot demonstration,” she said.

JV, Arock school trustees back on job

Board members reinstated after resigning over disclosure law

School trustees in Jordan Valley and Arock have been reappointed after each had resigned in protest of a financial disclosure law.

The Malheur Education Service District made the reappointments during a special meeting on April 25 in Ontario, Ore.

School board members from four districts in Malheur County tendered resignations between April 11 and April 14 after being notified about financial disclosure requirements that became Oregon law in 2022.

The deadline to comply with statement of economic interest (SEI) mandates was April 15, MESD superintendent Mark Redmond said. The looming deadline triggered the resignations from trustees who were opposed to the government’s requirement.

“This requirement occurred after many of them had been elected, as this was not a requirement when they were elected,” Redmond said.

Adrian superintendent Nick Ketterling said none of that district’s trustees quit and it was business as usual for the board.

Redmond said the reappointments were critical to the budget process, which begins this month for each district.

“The school board appointees will now be sworn in, and should have enough time now to work through the budgeting process in May and June,” Redmond said.

The resignations arrived even as the Oregon state Senate is working on a bill to postpone the disclosure requirements until 2026 for school districts with fewer than 4,000 students.

Senate Bill 292 sailed through the upper chamber by a 26-0 vote, but the legislative proposal is only now moving through the House of Representatives.

Jordan Valley’s reappointed board includes chair Josh Mackenzie, vice-chair Mike Quintero, and trustees Whitney Matteri, Mike Skinner, and Zack Dufurrena. All trustees serve at-large. All but Mackenzie, who resigned on April 15, quit the board on April 14.

All five Arock trustees were reinstated, too, including Sam Dowell, Mikal Lequerica, Elias Eiguren, Joseph McElhannon, and Brian Grenke. All five trustees stepped down on April 12.

Obituary

Wilma M Powell

Wilma M Powell, 86, died April 17, 2023, in Pilot Rock, Oregon. Wilma was born on June 17, 1936, to Charlie and Opal (Quick) Barnard in Zena, Oklahoma, the baby and only girl of 5 children. The family moved from Oklahoma to California when mom was a toddler. We have heard of several questionable stories of what her and her brothers got into over the years. We are not sure how they all survived. With her three girls, Jan Herndon, Hermiston OR, Linda Wilcox, Pilot Rock OR, Lori Pruittte, Kennewick WA, she moved from California to Homedale, Idaho, to be close to family, there she met Robert Powell at a dance. She ditched her date and left with our soon-to-be dad. They were married on September 7, 1961. They added two brothers, Michael Powell, Tillamook OR, Paul Powell, Seattle WA, to the mix.

Mom was a stay-at-home mom, sharing with us her love for gardening, sewing, flowers, crafts, cooking and most of all the love of family and family potlucks. You never knew who would show up for those or how many. Mom got her first job way later in life when she worked for the local hospital as one of the cooks; her true calling was when she catered for the doctor and board member meetings. She was able to be creative with the dishes and everyone loved her.

Mom lost her favorite friend and husband in 2021, she is survived by her 5 children, 2 sons-in-law: Raymond Wilcox, Michael Pruittte, and daughter-in-law, Kim Powell, 2 sisters-in-law, 11 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, 4 great-great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

A committal of ashes will be held May 5, 2023 at 1:00 at the Wilder Cemetery. Family and friends are invited to celebrate Wilma at the Homedale Bowling Alley. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Vange John Memorial Hospice Hermiston OR.

Controlling blue mustard, another troublesome weed

Blue mustard, Chorispora tenella, can be found all over in southwestern Idaho. If you have driven by fields full of lush purple flowers (or abandoned municipal/county lots, field margins, etc.), you can see this weed starting to flower right now. Interestingly, the first documented infestation for the United States occurred in Lewiston in 1929.

Brad Stokes

This weed is a winter or early spring annual weed and is within the mustard plant family (Brassicaceae). It reaches maturity relatively quickly and its maximum height can range from 6 to 8 inches in southern Idaho. Stems are covered with small gland-tipped hairs (trichomes), and leaves are lanceolate (look like a lance) with smooth margins. Flowers are distinctly bluish-purple, hence the common name — even though this author thinks the common name should be purple mustard. Blue mustard can also be problematic for agricultural operations (winter-annual crops [winter wheat]) and can also infest perennial crops such as alfalfa. It has a substantial taproot but primarily persists in our ecosystem through seed production, seed dispersal and germination. Control of blue mustard starts early in the season. There are no biological control methods for this weed species.

Mechanically speaking, mowing could be effective as well as light tillage during the early growth stages.

Grazing has also been somewhat successful for control, though seeds can stay viable through the digestive tract hence spreading this weed — be advised that grazing may be counterintuitive and depends on the growth stage of the plant.

Soil sterilization in small patches can also eliminate blue mustard seeds in the soil seedbank.

Chemical control (herbicides) is very effective for control of blue mustard, early in the season pre-emergent herbicides can inhibit germination and subsequent growth. Post-emergent herbicides that list blue mustard on the label (and the location of use) may also be highly effective for control. It is important to chemically control this species early in development, a control action taken right now might be unwise and unproductive. Please read and follow the pesticide (herbicide) label and use appropriately listed rates for control of this weed species.

Boren breaks decades-old Rimrock record

Raiders continue to climb at Knight Invite

Loyd Boren broke a 31-year-old school record as he inched closer to fellow District III distance rivals in Idaho’s Class 1A rankings Saturday. The junior shattered Reid Beus’ 1992 Rimrock High School record with his fourth-place time of 4 minutes, 36.2 seconds in the Knight Invite 1,600-meter run at Bishop Kelly in Boise. Boren’s personal-best time ranks behind only a pair of Victory Charter athletes (senior Ian Stockett, No. 1 at 4:23.36, and junior No. 2 Luke Stockett at 4:24.37) on the athletic.net 1A Idaho performance list. Junior Goya Lemus posted the state’s fifth-fastest 1A time in the girls’ 1,600 on Saturday, taking third place with a PR of 5:39.29. She also finished third and PR’d in the 800 at 2:35.06. “Both Loyd and Goya set four goals this season,” Raiders coach Amanda

Third-seeded HHS has shot at Payette rematch

Homedale High School’s seven-game baseball winning streak ended Monday, and so did the Trojans’ chances of a first-round bye in the 3A District III Tournament.

Payette held on to second place in the 3A Snake River Valley conference, scoring three times in the top of the sixth inning to break a tie and win the teams’ regular-season finale, 6-3, at John Jackson Field.

See next week’s The Owyhee Avalanche for more specifics about the contest.

The Trojans (16-8 overall, 6-4 in conference) head into the district tournament as the No. 3 seed.

Homedale will play host to McCall-Donnelly at noon on Saturday. A win Saturday gives the Trojans a rematch with Payette in the semifinal on the road at 5 p.m., Monday at Harmon Killebrew Field.

Friday, Game 2: Homedale 12, Buhl 8 — The Trojans scored eight times in the bottom of the fourth inning to erase a 6-4 deficit and sweep a non-conference doubleheader.

Homedale got the win despite the Indians (12-6-1) holding a 13-8 edge in hitting.

Chance Martell scored on a balk to tie the score, 6-6, in the fourth, and Carson Fine scored the go-ahead run when his older brother, Dillon, was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded.

Payton Fine had a run-scoring single to add insurance before Buhl got out of the inning with a double play.

Top-seeded Trojans roll into district softball tourney

There was no mystery in Homedale High School’s softball game Monday.

The Trojans already knew where they would open the 3A District III Tournament before they faced off with Payette on the road Monday.

As the district tournament top seed after running through the 3A Snake River Valley conference season virtually untouched, coach Larry Corta’s squad (19-5 overall, 10-0 in conference) will play host to a semifinal game at 5 p.m., on Monday at Homedale Middle School.

Marsing knocks off state champions

Huskies are one win away from first-round bye

by John Bruyninckx

For The Owyhee Avalanche

Marsing High School showed the gumption needed to compete in the baseball postseason and pulled off the upset of the season in the process.

Now the Huskies will need to deliver again today to secure a first-round bye in the 2A District III Tournament.

The Huskies jumped out to an early lead and held on for a 4-3 2A Western Idaho Conference victory on April 24 against reigning Class 2A state champion Nampa Christian.

“We played a really solid game versus Nampa Christian,” Huskies coach JW Chadez said. “It was a great win for the program and our kids. It’s been several years since we beat them in baseball.”

Playing on the road, Marsing (12-8 overall, 5-4 in conference) took advantage of some uncharacteristic miscues by the Trojans to mount a 3-0 lead in the first inning.

Perennial powerhouse Nampa Christian (15-5, 7-2) has a two-game lead over the field.

Marsing beat Melba, 10-8, on Monday to secure another tiebreaker in the Huskies’ hunt of the No. 2 seed. Marsing already owns the tiebreaker against Cole Valley Christian and can seal the deal for the

Homedale athletes sprinkle PRs on conference meet

Two days after missing a golf tournament with illness, Kinlee Garrett aced one of her hurdles events at the 3A Snake River Valley conference track and field meet.

The meet was held in Fruitland on Friday, and Garrett came away with the gold medal in the 100-meter hurdles (16.33 seconds).

Garrett is ranked high in the athletic net Class 3A performances lists, including No. 2 in the 100 (15.94) and fifth in the 300 hurdles (49.42). Both times were achieved at the Lynn Behrman Invitational on April 21.

The junior slipped back in the 300 hurdles, placing fourth at 51.54 while fellow junior and HHS teammate Carlie Moore rose up with the best time of her season to finish runner-up. Moore crossed the line in 49 seconds flat, which ranks third among Class 3A athletes in Idaho this season.

Freshman Stella Heck, another athlete splitting time with the golf team, was seventh in a personal-record time of 55.45.

Garrett (opening kick) and Moore (third leg) teamed with freshman Belen Asumendi and anchor leg Mylisa Barrett, another junior, to finish third in the 4x100-meter relay. The team raced to a 53.21, which is the fifth-best time among 3A quartets in Idaho this season.

100 meters of the season for third place. Freshman Kade Hall PR'd with an eighth-place time of 11.95, while junior Izmael Ortiz took 10th with a season-best 11.97.

There were several other Homedale PRs in the boys' 100-meter dash, including exchange student Josu Extebarria at 13.62. Extebarria is from the Basque country in Spain. Extebarria PR'd in the triple jump at 30 feet, 9 inches.

Sophomore sprinter Izayah Villafuerte turned in a couple of personal-best times, finishing 10th in the 100 (12.37) and 12th in the 200 (24.75). He also PR'd in the long jump at 17-3.

Junior Bobby Christensen ran his fastest races of the season, taking fourth in the 1,600 meters in 4 minutes, 59.55 seconds and crossing the line sixth in the 3,200 at 11:15.43.

Homedale's boys' 4x100 relay team finished third in 45.54 with Hall kicking things off before handing off to Norwegian exchange student Noah Eriksen, who passed to Detbun. Ortiz covered the final 100 meters.

The Trojans now have the fifth-fastest 4x100 time among the state's 3A quartets.

Detbun and Hall ran the 200-meter legs in Homedale's fourth-place sprint medley relay performance.

Sophomore Rafael Cuenca ran the 400 leg, and junior Brock Johnson anchored the 3:59.85 effort with the final 800 meters.

Junior Conner McCarney cleared 11-6 for third in the boys' pole vault. Eriksen was fifth with a PR of 10-6.

Freshmen Ty Roland (eighth, 9-0) and Dash Schlotterbeck (ninth, 8-0) both collected personal bests in the pole vault.

There were three Trojans top-five finishers in the long jump — Cuenca was fourth in 18-10, junior Snuepy Garcia and Detbun qualified for fifth at 18-7.

Cuenca was at it again in the triple jump, riding his PR mark of 39-4 to third place.

The HHS girls' impressive conduct in the pole vault continued during the conference meet, too.

Mylisa Barrett cleared 6 feet and earned third based on attempts. Sophomore Rivkah Leach (fifth) and junior Kaylee Schlotterbeck (eighth) also cleared 6-0. Schlotterbeck's effort was a career best.

Barrett and freshman Morgan Nicoletti both had PRs in the girls' long jump. Nicoletti was fifth at 15-½, and Barrett took sixth at 14-6.

Three ninth-graders PR'd in the girls' 100-meter sprint, including Asumendi (seventh, 13.9), Heck (10th, 14.35), and Jenessa Montes (20th, 15.94).

Nicoletti PR'd in the 400 with an eighth-place time of 1:10.48, and fellow freshman Hannah Babineaux was 10th in the 800 (2:57.99, PR).

Sophomore thrower Kayci Breshears notched a pair of ninth-place showings, including a PR in the shot put (27-4) and a 78-0 distance in the discus.

Another freshman achieved another PR when Hailey Jakovac took sixth in the high jump at 3-10.

Barrett took seventh in the triple jump with a 28-7¼ effort.

Fifth-seeded Huskies await No. 1 in district

Marsing High School's 2A Western Idaho Conference season is over, but softball coach Kortney Ford still doesn't know which team her players will face in their 2A District III Tournament opener.

The Huskies (7-14 overall, 1-7 2A WIC) locked into the fifth seed Monday, coming up short in a seventh-inning comeback and losing, 6-5, to Melba.

Marsing will meet the top seed at 2:30 p.m., on Friday, May 12 in New Plymouth. That could either be Nampa Christian or Cole Valley Christian, who are tied for No. 1.

Saturday: Wendell 15, Marsing 3 (6) — Trojans senior Madi Myers snapped a 2-2 with a two-run home run in the fifth inning of the Huskies' non-conference road game.

Wendell scored eight times in the fifth to take control.

Marsing was charged with six errors in the game.

Brooklyn Roadenbaugh clubbed a two-out solo homer to tie the game, 1-1, in the fourth.

After Wendell surged back in front, the Huskies knotted the score again in the fifth on Lilly Thoene's two-out, bases-loaded single. Jaci Montgomery, who had collected the first of Marsing's three singles in the inning, scored the tying run.

Bailey Daugherty scored Marsing's final run on Ariel Ingersoll's fielder's choice in the sixth. Daugherty led a seven-hit attack with two singles.

Roadenbaugh struck out eight over 5 1/3 innings.

Last Wednesday: New Plymouth 10, Marsing 2 — The visiting Pilgrims started fast, scoring the conference game's first seven runs.

Montgomery and Thoene were the only Huskies to get hits, but neither single factored in the scoring. New Plymouth's Jewel Bell struck out 12.

Asia Carrillo stole home with two outs in the third, and two errors led to senior Mila Astorquia's run in the sixth.

April 24: Nampa Christian 11, Marsing 1 (5) — The Huskies didn't score until Montgomery and Thoene came through in the final at-bat of a conference game in Nampa.

Montgomery led off with a single, and Thoene drove her home with a two-out base hit.

Marsing managed just two other hits in the ballgame — a first-inning single from Thoene and Mariah Colbert's base hit with two outs in the fourth.

Huskies excel at Knight Invite Marsing High School athletes produced some big marks for a big meet.

Junior Braden Ankeny ran the second-fastest 400 meters in school history, finishing second in 50.65 seconds during the Knight Invite at Bishop Kelly High School.

"We didn't have a full team at the BK Invite because entries were very limited, but of the kids that we were able to get in, we had some really great performances," Marsing coach Heidi Ankeny said.

Already in possession of the top Class 2A times in Idaho for the 100 and 200, Ankeny moved up to No. 2 in the 400 with his performance. Salmon senior Kohlbin Bragg claimed the top spot on the same day — Saturday — during the Tiger/Grizz Invitational.

Ankeny was third in the 200 in 23.08.

The two-day Knight Invite began Friday in Boise.

"The weather was beautiful although it felt a bit warm to the kids just because they are not used to competing in anything but cold and wind," Heidi Ankeny said.

"It was great to compete against some bigger schools and different athletes. It really challenged the kids that we had

Marsing's Bentley McIntyre prepares to toss the shot put during the Knight Invite in Boise. He finished 26th at 32 feet, 7 inches. Submitted photo there, and I know that drove their PRs."

Senior Emily Vanosdall won a bronze medal in the triple jump, posting a season-best mark of 33 feet, 1½ inches. That mark ranks her fourth in the state for Class 2A performances. She was seventh in the long jump at 15-3.

Raylynn Vanosdall's personal-best 30-10¾ brought eighth in the triple jump.

Junior Eli Ankeny — Braden's cousin — ran the fastest 800 meters of his life (2 minutes, 13.36 seconds).

Sophomore Sydney Nelson PR'd at 1 minute, 4.59 seconds for seventh in the girls' 400.

Another 10th-grader, Wendy Alvarez, PR'd in the 800 at 3:36.79.

Freshman Breann Dickerson ran the fastest 1,600 of her young career (6:47.65), shaving 29 seconds off her previous best.

Josue Espejel also had a season-best time in the boys' 800 at 2:19.87.

"The distance kids did well, and (coach) Isaiah (Ponce) is doing a great job training them to peak at the right time in the season," Heidi Ankeny said.

Junior Trinity Stimmel pulled off a career-best 84-6 in the discus, which moved her into third place in the District III rankings.

Senior Vanessa Freeman had top-10 finishes in the girls' sprints, taking sixth in the 200 (28.35) and seventh in the 100 (13.78).

Trojans chasing Vandals for another week on course

Parker, HHS boys ready for district golf

Homedale High School’s golfers settled for runner-up placings in a pair of 18-hole boys’ tournaments.

The Trojans finished second to McCall-Donnelly for the second week in a row in 3A Snake River Valley conference play.

This time, the Vandals beat Homedale in an 18-hole tournament played at Scotch Pines Golf Course in Payette.

All the conference golfers — boys and girls — will be back at Scotch Pines on Monday for the 3A District III championship tournament, another 18-hole competition.

On April 25, Trojans struggled with putting in the conference meet.

Luke Henry led the squad with an 83.

“He did great on the first few holes and then three-putted a couple times and tried to find his game on the rest of the course,” first-year HHS coach Raymond Smith said.

Tyler Erickson was the second-best HHS golfer in the boys’ field, carding an 87 to edge past teammate McCoy Swallow (88).

“(Swallow) played well on the first nine (holes), missed a lot of birdie and par putts and had a few issues on the back nine, and he did finish strong,” Smith said.

Kinley Balkovetz found a few birdies, but Smith said the rest of the time Balkovetz “and his putter were having a disagreement on the green.” The junior fired a 96.

Levi Jamison came in at 110.

“He was having a tough time here, and his game just didn’t come through for him,” Smith said. “But he put in a great effort.”

Parker leads girls

Gwen Parker delivered a highlight at the right time while motoring to a 92 over 18 holes at Scotch Pines.

With her parents — former standout HHS golfers Gavin and Annie Parker — looking on, the sophomore drilled a 7-foot putt to birdie one of the Payette course’s par-5 holes.

“She did awesome on the front nine, and her contact with the ball was on target today,” Smith said. “Chipping was better, but a few greens were not on her side.”

Stella Heck pulled off the first par of her high school career on the way to 131.

“She was very ecstatic (about the par), and her short game was on target,” Smith said. “But she struggled out of the box.”

Cadence Nicoletti came in at 137 after cleaning up her play after the first nine holes.

“She was having problems with her short game and chipping, but she was excited about finally having some decent golf weather,” Smith said.

Three JV boys compete

Homedale didn’t field a full team for the 3A SRV nine-hole meet April 25 at Scotch Pines.

Jackson Kerbs led the Trojans threesome with a 50, while Breken Frank came in at 56. Matt Riha shot a 61.

Boys second in Baker tourney

The home team made the most of the day on a windy and cold Quail Ridge Golf Course as Baker won an 18-hole tournament by 28 strokes over Homedale.

A total of 13 high schools were in attendance outside Baker City, and the Trojans placed two players in the top 10 and one just outside of it.

Ontario, Ore.’s Tyce Helmick won a tiebreaker for low medalist. He and Baker’s Isaiah Jones each carded 72s.

The Bulldogs finished at 319, while Homedale chimed in at 347, which was 13 strokes ahead of third-place The Ambrose School.

Ambrose’s David Chacon fired a 78 and was one of only two Idaho golfers to crack the top five.

Henry was the other one, finishing two shots behind Chacon and tied with Burns, Ore.’s Colton Miller at 80.

Henry birdied a couple holes to highlight an otherwise pedestrian putting day.

“He played well on all the par-threes,” Smith said.

Swallow bounced back from a disastrous opening hole and took seventh with an 83.

He drained a 40-foot putt on No. 7 and then played consistent on the back nine. He started with a 7 on his first hole then knocked in either bogey or par putt on each hole the rest of the round.

“He played consistently on the back nine,” Smith said. “He had a very good round.”

Erickson went out in 40, but stumbled on the back nine before managing to still take 11th with an 87.

“The course was not very friendly to him on the back nine,” Smith said.

Balkovetz delivered a 97 while struggling with his short game and on the greens.

“He did connect well with his irons and driver,” Smith said.

Jamison wrapped up the Trojans’ effort with a 104.

“He did struggle all the way with his game,” Smith said. “He could not catch a break, but he made a great effort to finish strong.”

Adrian track standout makes college choice

Adrian High School senior Jesse Walker on Monday signed a letter of intent to attend Treasure Valley Community College. The son of Casey and Krissy Walker will compete on the Chukars’ track and field team. Walker was instrumental in the Antelopes’ 2022 state championship boys’ team, serving on the championship 4x400-meter relay team and placing sixth in the 400-meter run. He’s ranked among 1A Oregon athletes for the current season: First in the 4x100 relay and 4x400 relay, and fourth in the 400. Personal records include: 11.88 seconds in the 100 meters, 23.54 in the 200 meters, and 54.04 in the 400. “Adrian High School is proud of Jesse and all of his accomplishments and looks forward to his very bright future,” principal Billy Wortman said. According to Chargerswire.usatoday.com, the Matlock selection allowed the AFC West team to bolster a defensive front that saw two season-ending

He joins second-round pick Tuli Tuipulotu from USC as two defensive line selections for the Chargers. Tuipulotu is projected as an edge rusher.

Shea McClellin, the first Owyhee County high school football player chosen in the NFL Draft, attended Marsing

High School but lived across the Snake River in Canyon County.

McClellin was the No. 1 pick of the Chicago Bears, going in the 19th slot of the 2012 draft. He later won a Super Bowl with the New England Patriots. Now retired, McClellin coaches his alma mater’s football team in Marsing.

Rimrock, Marsing golfers land in Purple Sage top 10

Three Owyhee County high school golfers finished in the top 10 at the Purple Sage boys' tournament. Marsing's Sam Milburn finished tied for fifth. He and Nampa Christian's Ryker Lacy each fired 10-over-par 46s during the nine-hole tournament held April 25 outside Caldwell. Rimrock's Rocky Aquiso tied for seventh with a 47. Tucker Fortin of team champion Compass Charter also carded a 47. The Huskies' Xavier Linker shot a 49 and tied for ninth with Council's Malachi Goodwin. Marsing's other golfer, James Christiansen, came in at 59. Compass scored 185 as Cole Fay shot a 42 and edged David Chacon of runner-up The Ambrose School (199) for medalist.

first-round bye with a win over North Star Charter today at 5 p.m. It's Senior Night. Pick up next week's edition of The Owyhee Avalanche details on the Huskies' final regular-season games.
On April 24, Nampa Christian's freshman starting pitcher, Riley Schaefer, appeared rattled after Marsing's Jace Chadez led off the game by reaching base on catcher's interference. Schaefer then walked a couple of players, hit another batter and gave up a single before settling down. Xavier Delgadillo picked up the victory for Marsing. He pitched the first five innings, allowing three earned runs on four hits. Teagan Kinney got the save after two dominant innings in which he struck out four batters and didn't allow a hit.
Delgadillo, Cache Hance, and Luke Steinmeyer each drove in a run.
At No. 2, Marsing would get a first-round bye and play in Saturday's 3 p.m., semifinal in Melba needing only one win to qualify for the state tournament.
If the Huskies are No. 3 or lower, they'll start the tournament Friday.
Last Wednesday: New Plymouth 7, Marsing 4 — Kinney started and, despite not having his best stuff, held the visiting Pilgrims to two runs through five innings. But New Plymouth rallied for five runs in the sixth to surge ahead.
After Kinney walked the first two batters in the sixth, the Marsing bullpen couldn't put out the fire.
"We almost got out of the inning, but an untimely error, and a couple of clutch hits, and it turned into a big inning," JW Chadez said.
"We then had several chances to come back, but we couldn't get any timely hits when we needed them. We also made several costly base running mistakes."
Senior JT Chadez was 2-for-4 to get half of Marsing's hits. Kinney scored a pair of runs from the top of the order. Chadez and Kinney both ripped doubles.
Friday: Payette 12, Marsing 8 — The Huskies had a hard time maintaining focus in the final game of the week.
After two innings of non-conference play, the Pirates jumped out to a 7-0 lead. Starting pitcher Jace Chadez lasted only 1 1/3 innings as his defense crumbled behind him.
"We were definitely not focused, and it showed," JW Chadez said. "We made several errors and just were not into the game."
To their credit, the Huskies did not concede and were able to pull to within one run, 8-7, in the top of the sixth.
Delgadillo and Dresden Wood collected two hits each, with Delgadillo hitting a double and knocking in a pair of runs.
"I'm confident we will bounce back this coming week," Chadez said, "as we control our destiny for the No. 2 seed in the district tournament."

matter other than closing out an unbeaten conference season and extending a winning streak to 15 games. Pick up the May 10 edition of The Owyhee Avalanche for more details about the regular-season finale.
Facing off with either Parma or Fruitland, who play in Saturday's No. 4 vs. No. 5 game, the Trojans need just one win to secure a chance to defend their state championship. A victory Monday would put Homedale in the district title game, which is set for next Wednesday at HMS if all goes according to plan for the Trojans.
Friday, Game 2: Homedale 9, Buhl 2 — The Olivias carried the Trojans to close a non-conference doubleheader.
Olivia Miller hit a solo home run, and Olivia Asumendi pitched a two-hitter with nine strikeouts.
Miller got Homedale on the board in the bottom of the first with her solo home run over the center-field fence at the HMS complex.
Sitts drilled a two-run double with two outs in the bottom of the second.
Asumendi led off the third with a double and scored when Katie Christoffersen hit a double with two outs.
Arlett Quezada had an RBI single in the fifth. She and Zayne Hall both came away with two singles.
Friday, Game 1: Homedale 3, Buhl 2 — The opener had a little more drama as the Trojans had to hold off the Indians' charge in the sixth inning.
Homedale had led since the opening frame when Sitts led off with a double and scored on Hall's single. Hall gave the Trojans a 2-0 lead on Miller's two-out single.
Miller gave Homedale a 3-0 lead with her second RBI, a ground ball that brought home Hall, who had doubled.
Jenna Ambrose doubled home a run and scored on a wild pitch as Buhl mounted a comeback, but Sitts ended the threat with runners at the corners by spinning one of her 16 strikeouts.
Last Wednesday: Homedale 12, Weiser 1 (5) — The Wolverines managed just an unearned run as Asumendi fired a three-hitter and struck out seven.
The junior right-hander also had a 2-for-3 day with a double and three runs scored.
Catcher Lilly Trescott was 2-for-3 with two RBI, and Quezada doubled with two RBI.
April 24: Homedale 9, McCall-Donnelly 0 — Sitts didn't let a road game distract her, striking out 15 Vandals and tossing a two-hit shutout.
She also had a big day from the leadoff spot, going 2-for-5 with three RBI and two runs.
Trescott drove in two runs, including an RBI double to plate Hall as Homedale closed out the scoring with a three-run fifth inning.
Homedale took a 4-0 lead in the second inning. Sitts' line-drive, two-run single started the rally by bringing home Isana Larzelier and Miller.
Christoffersen had a run-scoring single, and Trescott forced in the fourth run with a bases-loaded walk.
Christoffersen went 2-for-5, and Ellie Miller scored twice.

of four walks, two hit batsmen and half its hits (all singles) — including a pair by Carson Fine -- in the fateful inning.
Dillon Fine had a double and triple and scored two runs. Lukas Hall, Carson Fine (3-for-4) and Jayden Wutherich drove in two runs apiece.
Hall pitched the final 4 1/3 innings for the victory, giving up two unearned runs.
Friday, Game 1: Homedale 10, Buhl 4 — Dillon Fine collected five RBI in a 3-for-4 outing that included a triple, and the Trojans cruised to a win.
D'Orr Packer's line-drive, two-out single chased home Martell with two outs in the bottom of the second as the Trojans snapped a 1-1 deadlock.
Homedale owned a 4-1 lead and never looked back. The Trojans put a lid on the affair with a five-run sixth inning highlighted by Fine's two-run triple and Packer's second RBI single of the game.
Fine scored on Lukas Hall's base hit (the second of two RBI for Hall), and Wutherich also had a run-scoring single.
Sigmund Goode walked three times and scored three runs.
Last Wednesday: Homedale 14, Weiser 0 (5) — Right-hander Dillon Fine faced only two batters over the minimum in the Trojans' mercy-rule victory against 3A SRV foe Weiser (6-14, 2-7) at John Jackson Field.
The junior struck out nine and threw a one-hitter. He threw pitches to 17 batters in the five-inning game, and the Wolverines' only other baserunner came on a walk to Telsyn Hawker.
Finn Dolton picked up Weiser's hit.
Fine helped his own cause with another big day at the plate, too. He was 2-for-4 with a double, knocking in three runs and scoring twice.
Homedale collected 10 hits and took advantage of four Weiser errors while scoring in every inning.
Goode posted three RBI during a 2-for-2 day that also saw a triple and two runs scored.
Packer went 2-for-4 with two runs and two RBI, and Martell knocked in a pair of runs.
Wutherich was 2-for-2 with a run.
April 24: Homedale 15, McCall-Donnelly 4 (5) — The Trojans buried the Vandals in a surprise home game. The conference contest was moved from McCall because of unplayable conditions on the Vandals' diamond.
Leading 4-3, Homedale broke open the game with four runs in the top of the third inning then set up the 10-run rule with a seven-run explosion in the fourth inning.
Goode doubled and drove in two runs while leading the hard-hitting offense with a 3-for-5 performance.
Payton Fine got the win with five strikeouts, and he went 2-for-4 with a double and two RBI while scoring twice.
Xavier Uranga pitched three innings in relief. He also crossed the plate twice.
Wutherich, Packer and Hall collected two hits apiece. Hall plated a pair of runs as did Dillon Fine.
McCall (0-11, 0-9) tightened the score, 4-3, with two runs in the bottom of the second against Payton Fine.

Special levy vote at Grand View set for May 8

GRAND VIEW — A special school levy election will be held Tuesday, May 8, between the hours of 12 noon and 8 p.m., for the purpose of requesting permission for the Board of Trustees of Joint School District No. 365 to levy a 3 mill over-ride tax levy for maintenance and operation for the school year 1973-74.

Under the provisions of Sec. 33-802 of the Idaho Code, as amended by the 1973 Idaho State Legislature, the previous 30 mill limitation for leveling taxes at the local level, was lowered to 27 mills, thus making it mandatory that to continue at the present 30 mill funding, permission to do so must be affirmed by the patrons of the district.

A GREAT MINING ENTERPRISE.—Geo. Collier Robbins, Esq., is engaged in organizing a joint stock company for the purpose of running a tunnel through War Eagle Mountain, from Jordan to Sinker Creek, which, if successfully completed, will be the most extensive mining enterprise ever engaged in, inasmuch as the tunnel will be over two miles in length, and cut at a great depth scores of rich ledges already known, besides a large number of others that would doubtless be discovered. A statement in writing, commending the enterprise, has been prepared and will be signed by the principal mine-owners, mill and business men in the County to show that the people here possess confidence in the practicability of the project and the immense pecuniary advantage that will result from a prosecution of that great work. Mr. Robbins is now surveying, preparing plans, &c., and in a few weeks will start for New York where he is confident that he can organize a company with sufficient capital to prosecute the proposed work. Already the sum of $110,000 is subscribed. Mr. Robbins is eminently qualified to conduct the enterprise, he having been identified with the progress and development of the Owyhee mines almost from their discovery to the present time. He is a gentleman who is well acquainted with our people, possesses good judgment, energy and perseverance, and is a good business manager, as was evinced when he was Superintendent of the New York G. & S. M. Co., now the Owyhee Company.

This enterprise offers great inducements to capitalists, as the laws of the Territory allow the owners of such a tunnel to hold all the blind, unlocated and forfeited lodes penetrated for five hundred feet on each side. To owners of mines on War Eagle it presents great advantages in the way of future working, as it will tap the mines from three to fifteen hundred feet deep, and thus obviate the necessity of expensive hoisting works and effectually draining the mines. We wish Mr. Robbins success and hope to see the work commenced at an early day, believing that it will be of immense benefit to our camp. From what we have said an idea can be formed of the work, the advantages that will accrue, &c. At another time we will speak more at length on the subject, and probably give the entire statement mentioned above.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—The latter part of last week a shooting scrape occurred between Dan McClerry, a ranchman on Reynolds Creek, and a man who had been working for him. We have not learned the particulars, but understand it as follows: A man, whose name we have not learned, had been working for McClerry, who, not liking the fellow, payed him off and ordered him to leave. An altercation ensued, pistols were drawn and McClerry received a shot in the left arm, between the elbow and wrist. The bullet was extracted from the wound, which is painful but not dangerous.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Wm. H. Dewey is raising his two buildings, situated on corner of Washington and Second streets. They will be raised about four feet, and when the street opposite them is filled up, their appearance will be materially improved. If two or three other buildings on the lower side of Washington Street were raised out of the mud, and the street filled in, it would considerably enhance their value and make Washington Street the best-looking street in town.

Education road show

Post-legislative tour connects with state’s ed. leaders

For two weeks, I crisscrossed Idaho with members of my team to visit school leaders all around the state. This is an annual State Department of Education practice, and its timing is deliberate. This “post-legislative roadshow” is held soon after the end of Idaho’s annual legislative session and is meant to share with local district leaders the changes made to education policy and how those new laws will affect their teachers, students, budgets and operations.

We hosted events in Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Nampa, Twin Falls, Moscow and Coeur d’Alene. More than 500 superintendents, business managers, trustees, teachers and other leaders attended. Audience members also included key education groups like the Idaho Association of School Administrators, Idaho School Boards Association as well as state lawmakers from the education and budget committees.

Each stop on our tour followed the same format and included my staff and I updating attendees on changes to school funding, newly passed laws requiring updated policies and operations and much more. We made presentations and then welcomed audience questions. Some were easy to answer, and others need a follow-up. We reminded our school folks that the legislative session just ended and some items that they will need to address weren’t yet finalized on our end. Attendees shared opinions on the issues that matter most to their district. By the end of the tour, we’d exchanged loads of important information, and I was very appreciative of those who participated. Education is a team endeavor, and it was really satisfying to talk through tough issues with the goal of providing facts and support.

This event is one of the most important services the State Department of Education provides to Idaho schools. The policy changes made by the Idaho Legislature are numerous and have impacts on every school across the state. Some new laws are high profile. Others are lesser known, but nonetheless important. For local leaders, watching every education-related development in Boise while running a district or charter is impossible.

State, federal legislation safeguarding Idaho farmground against adversaries

There has been increased concern in Idaho and across the country regarding Chinese companies’ purchases of U.S. farmland. Idaho agricultural land is a precious resource that should be protected from foreign adversaries. I recently co-sponsored legislation that would prevent foreign adversaries’ purchases or investment in U.S. farmland.

There are no federal restrictions on the amount of private American agricultural land that can be owned by foreign entities. However, since 1978, federal law has required foreign persons or entities to disclose foreign investment and ownership of U.S. agricultural land to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). According to a 2021 report from the USDA’s Farm Service Agency (FSA), Chinese investors own 192,000 acres of farmland (cropland, pasture, forests or other agricultural lands) in the U.S. The same report indicates Iranian investors own more than 2,300 acres of agricultural lands in the U.S., while Russian investors own less than 100 acres.

In Idaho, according to the FSA data, more than 127,000 agricultural acres are owned by foreign investors. The FSA report provides the following breakdown of the countries of those foreign investors and the acres attributed to each:

- Canada: 13,206 acres;
- Netherlands: 1,804 acres;
- United Kingdom: 14,468 acres;
- Germany: 12,589 acres; and
- All others: 85,285

Fourteen states already have some level of restriction on foreign ownership of land. The Idaho House of Representatives passed, on March 2, by a vote of 69-0, HB173 that amends existing law to

Financial management

Just park cash, let it grow before buying investment property

DAVE Says
by Dave Ramsey • www.davesays.org

Dear Dave,
I plan to buy another investment property with cash in the next year or two. Currently, I have $83,000 sitting in a high-yield savings account at 4 percent interest. My goal is to save another $50,000 to $70,000 in the upcoming months. Right now, 4 percent is good, but I want to make sure I’m maximizing my returns. Should I be doing something else with the money?

Dear Brett,
I like the way you’re doing things. Right now, you’re simply parking the money short term for a purchase a few months down the road. If you invest it, you might make a little more, but you’re taking more risk, too. If I’m you, I’m parking the cash.
Here’s the deal: The money you’ll have to purchase another property won’t come from a return on the investment. It’ll come from you putting money in the account. The investment isn’t the secret sauce in this scenario — you are. If you invested the money and made 10 percent rather than 4 percent over two months, let’s say, that amounts to about a 3 percent difference. That’s nothing in your case. You’re not within a couple thousand dollars of doing a deal at the moment. Your deal is a $150,000 deal. Your return on investment isn’t going to make this happen, or keep it from happening. See what I’m saying?

Just keep doing what you’ve been doing and park the money. That’s what I’d do. People who are math nerds, like us, always look for things to fix an investment. But sometimes the thing that fixes the investment is you. You are the one doing the investing. You are the one putting money in the account. So, in this case, don’t try to fix it. Just pile up money and go do it.
Great question, Brett!

From the Statehouse

2023 legislative work brings Idaho-focused accomplishments

For more than 20 years, I have had the honor of spending the beginning of each new year at the Idaho Capitol, working hard to do right by those who entrusted me to be their voice at the Statehouse and to continue to make Idaho the best state in the nation to live, work, and raise a family. The 2023 legislative session was no different. While my role may have changed, as your new lieutenant governor, I am proud of the work my legislative colleagues and I accomplished this year for the betterment of Idaho and its citizens.
A successful business climate begins with a good education system. This year, the state Legislature focused on school choice, empowering parents, supporting Idaho’s public schools, and recognizing the crucial role of good teachers in every classroom. It is now Idaho law to keep parents in the driver’s seat of their child’s education and encourage consistent, transparent communication between parents and schools.
In addition, the passage of the Idaho Launch Program is a huge step forward for our state. This grant of up to $8,000 per student is an investment in Idaho high school graduates that will pay dividends back in every business sector. This scholarship will give students who want to pursue a career in the trades or attend a workforce training program the means to help pay for that education. The Idaho Career Ready Students Program that passed this session will help us meet our local industry and workforce needs by creating a pool of well-trained, skilled workers. This program will move us forward to the day when an Idaho kid can always get an Idaho job.

As inflation continues to affect almost every aspect of our lives, your elected officials also addressed rising property taxes. Gov. Brad Little’s initial veto of a bill that was disguised as property tax relief was the right choice. The first bill was a mixed bag of policies that would have made significant changes to education, transportation infrastructure, and public defense funding. The Legislature then drafted a series of “trailer” bills designed to keep property tax relief simple, competitive, and long-lasting. Idahoans will now receive $117 million of ongoing property tax relief with no unintended consequences to local control, school bonding, ambulance and fire district funding, or needed transportation projects across Idaho counties. After back-to-back-to-back years of tax relief, no other state has given back more taxpayer money per capita than Idaho has.

Idaho is focusing on the future. This year, your state government continued to remove unnecessary red tape, make smart investments in key areas, and promote a positive business climate. From establishing grant programs to help improve roads and bridges, to furthering the development of emerging clean, domestic energy technologies, and to assuring that Idaho elections are safe, secure, and transparent, the 2023 legislative session continued to keep Idaho well positioned for the future.
As your 44th lieutenant governor, I am honored and humbled by your trust. My overriding goal is to continue implementing policies that are family-centered, business-friendly, and Idaho-focused. I am proud and excited to work with Gov. Little as we make our state one that we can all be proud of.

✓ Tour: Statewide jaunt provides audience with Dept. of Ed. chief, staff

This tour was my first as superintendent. I have participated in other ways for years, but to lead out, set the tone and engage with our educational communities on their own turf was an incredible opportunity for me as a public servant. It’s so important to hear directly from our school leaders and discuss the work we do.

My hope and goal was that attendees saw a superintendent and education department who listen to the challenges they face. I also want them to see us as willing partners in addressing those issues. In our efforts to support students as the primary focus of what we do, this type of outreach and support is critical to our shared success.

into law on April 3.
At the federal level, I co-sponsored the Promoting Agriculture Safeguards and Security (PASS) Act, which seeks to prevent foreign adversaries like China from purchasing or investing in U.S. farmland. The legislation would:
• Prohibit China, Russia, Iran and North Korea from purchasing U.S. farmland and agricultural companies;
• Add the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture as a standing member of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States to consider agriculture needs when making determinations affecting our national security; and • Require the president to submit a report to Congress on any waiver granted to a prohibited country.

In March, the Idaho Farm Bureau was among 25 food and agricultural groups that released a report quantifying the jobs, wages and economic output of agricultural production across our country. The group reported, “the food and ag industry in Idaho is responsible for 370,878 jobs in the state, as well as $21.9 billion in total wages, $7.5 billion in taxes and $1 billion in exports.” Agricultural land in Idaho and across our country is far too important to let it be bought up by foreign adversaries. We must protect this important sector, while we safeguard our national security interests. I look forward to the enactment of the PASS Act to better safeguard this essential resource.

✓ Rimrock: Several personal records achieved during big Boise meet

Dygert said. “At this meet, they both accomplished two of those four goals.

“They are each on track to continue to perform well and reach their other goals. Big things are still to come for these two this season, and next.”

Rimrock athletes established 13 PRs during the two-day meet.

Freshman Olivia Farfan is another strong point in the Raiders’ distance stable. Her career-best time of 6:02.16 took ninth in the 1,600.

Boren is also part of the state’s seventh-fastest Class 1A sprint medley team. He ran the final 800 meters Saturday for the Raiders’ runner-up squad, which crossed the finish line with a season-best 3:53.75. Sophomore Ronaldo Gomez and senior Aden Aquiso ran the first part of the race, covering 200 meters apiece. Senior Julio Alamilla took the baton from Aquiso and sprinted 400 meters before giving way to Boren.

Freshman Morgan Field posted PRs in the throws, including an 11th-place mark of 120 feet, 11 inches in the boys’ discus. He reached 35-6¾ in the shot put.

Aquiso claimed 11th in the long jump at 18-8½.

The Moore sisters — junior Ashten and senior Maklay — placed fifth and eighth, respectively, in the long jump. Ashten posted a 15-6¼, while Maklay went 15-1.

Ironically, the girls are ranked fifth and eighth, respectively but in reverse, in the 1A state performance for the long jump. Maklay attained a 16-2 PR at the Lynn Behrman Invitational, and Ashten achieved a 15-8 during the Lee Cook Invitational on April 13.

Meanwhile, Ashten took eighth in the Knight Invite triple jump with another career-best mark (30-10¾).

Maklay finished sixth in the weekend’s 100-meter hurdles (20.16), and junior teammate Rhylan Burbank pulled off a PR with a ninth-place 20.65.

The Moore sisters — Maklay out of the blocks, Ashten at the close — book-ended Rimrock’s sixth-place sprint medley relay. Dayanara Hurtado, who also ran a 100 leg like Maklay, and Annakay Winings (200) covered the middle portion of the effort before Ashten closed out the 2:06.54 time with the final 400 meters.

Maklay finished seventh in the 100 hurdles at 20.05.
